John Doe answered. When initially speaking to John Doe at the door he declined to answer any questions, closed the door, and told server to leave now through the window. Server left, and was sitting in front of the home in the street in his car writing down a few notes then John Doe came out to servers car with a black female ( Jane Doe), and they both asked " why I was still there?" Server told them the truth and showed them server ID and explained role as a process server. Then Jane Doe proceeded to ask server for a business card. Server answered with a question: I asked John and Jane Doe for their names and asked them if they had a card for me? John Doe then stated: " that you are at my residence why should I give you a card?". Subjects walked back to residence. Server then read the contents of the documents out loud and notified John Doe that he was served as a co-resident of Yakima M. Jordan per Florida Statue 48.31, and left the documents in a secure and conspicuous place by the front door on the handle. Server also noted tags of car vehicles in front of home: Tags DRPX31, AUXQ83, EBEN20, HCLY45
